The Salutation

Min. : In the Name of God the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit

Cong. : Amen

Min. : The Grace and Peace of God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ be with you all

Cong. : And also with you

Min. : Our Help is in the name of the Lord

Cong. : Who made heaven and earth

The Opening Sentence

Opening Hymn: CHB 487 - I AM not skilled to understand ...

1. I AM not skilled to understand What God hath willed, what God hath planned;
I only know at His right hand
Stands One who is my Saviour.
2. I take God at His word and deed;
'Christ died to save me', this I read;
And in my heart I find a need
Of Him to be my Saviour.
3. And was there then no other way
For God to take? – I cannot say;
I only bless Him, day by day,
Who saved me through my Saviour.
4. That He should leave His place on high
And come for sinful man to die,
You count it strange? – so do not I,
Since I have known my Saviour.
5. And O that He fulfilled may see
The travail of His soul in me,
And with His work contented be,
As I with my dear Saviour!

6. Yea, living, dying, let me bring
My strength, my solace, from this spring,
That He who lives to be my King
Once died to be my Saviour.

Prayer

Responsive Psalms 42:1-5

Min. : As a deer longs for a stream of cool water, so I long for You, O God.

Cong. : I thirst for You, the living God, when can I go and worship in Your presence?

Min. : Day and night I cry, and tears are my only food.

Cong. : All the time my enemies ask me,
'Where is your God?'

Min. : My heart breaks when I remember the past, when I went with the crowds to the house of God and led them as they walked along

Cong. : A happy crowd, singing and shouting praise to God.

Min. : Why am I so sad? Why am I so troubled?

Cong. : I will put my hope in God and once again I will praise Him my Saviour and my God.

Min. : Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit

Cong. : As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be, world without end, Amen.

Song: CHB 238 - Fading away...

1. FADING away like the stars of the morning,
Losing their light in the glorious sun—
Thus would we pass from the earth and
its toiling,
Only remembered by what we have
done.

*Only remembered, only remembered,
Only remembered by what we have
done;
Thus would we pass from the earth and
its toiling,
Only remembered by what we have
done.*

2. Shall we be missed, though by others succeeded,
Reaping the fields we in spring-time have sown?
Yes, but the sowers must pass
from their labours, Ever remembered by what they have done.
3. Only the truth that in life we have spoken,
Only the seed that on earth we have
sown;

These shall pass onward when we are

When the bright crowns of rejoicing are won,
Then shall His weary and faithful disciples
All be remembered by what they have

Proclamation of the Word

1st Lesson: John 5:24-29

2nd Lesson: 2 Corinthians 5:1-10

Song: CHB 301 - MY faith has found a rest- ing place...

1. MY faith has found a resting place,
Not in device nor creed;
I trust the ever living One
His wounds for me shall plead.

*I need no other argument,
I need no other plea,
It is enough that Jesus died,
And that He died for me.*

2. Enough for me that Jesus saves,
This ends my fear and doubt;
A sinful soul I come to Him,
He'll never cast me out.
3. My heart is leaning on the Word,
The written Word of God,
Salvation by my Saviour's name,
Salvation thro' His blood.

4. My great physician heals the sick,
The lost He came to save;
For me His precious blood He shed,
For me His life He gave.

Song: CHB 278 - WHEN peace, like a river, attendeth my way...

1. WHEN peace, like a river, attendeth my way,
When sorrows, like sea-billows roll;
Whatever my lot, Thou hast taught me to know,
"It is well, It is well with my soul."
It is well . . . with my soul, . . .
It is well, it is well with my soul.
2. Though Satan should buffet, though trials should come,
Let this blest assurance control,
That Christ hath regarded my helpless estate,
And hath shed His own blood for my soul.
3. My sin—oh, the bliss of this glorious thought!
My sin—not in part, but the whole,
Is nailed to His cross; and I bear it no more Praise the Lord, praise the Lord,
O my soul!
4. For me, be it Christ, be it Christ hence to live!
If Jordan above me shall roll,

No pang shall be mine, for in death as in life
Thou wilt whisper Thy peace to my soul.

5. But, Lord, 'tis for Thee, for Thy coming, we wait;
The sky, not the grave, is our goal:
Oh, trump of the Angel! oh, voice of the Lord!
Blessèd hope! Blessèd rest of my soul!

Biography

Mrs. Nzume née Carolyne Bessem Lobe, a beacon of peace, love, kindness, gentleness, humility and compassion, was born on the 12th April 1961 in Kembong, Manyu Division to Pa Netongo Lobe (of blessed memory) and Ma Lobe née Esther Ashu Mbu.

Mrs. Nzume lived a remarkable life filled with passions and accomplishments.

With regards to her academic life, she attended several Presbyterian, Catholic and Government primary and secondary schools across Kumba, Mamfe, Besongabang and obtained the G.C.E. A' Levels at CCAST Bambili in 1983.

She proceeded to the University of Yaounde for two years and gained admission into ENAM, where she trained as a Labour Controller.

Concerning her professional life, she worked for the Ministry of Labour and Social Security in various capacities and regions, serving as Service Head for the Regional Delegations in both the North (Garoua) and South West (Buea) Regions.

Additionally, she was the Divisional Delegate for Fako for a few years before returning to Garoua, where she retired as a Labour Administrator in 2016.

As far as family life is concerned, Mrs. Nzume got married to her soulmate and devoted husband, Colonel Kenneth Akwe Nzume, on the 26th August 1986. They were blessed with both biological and adopted children, most of whom are now successful and responsible adults as a result of their sacrifice and parental guidance.

She was a devoted wife, mother, grandmother, daughter, sister and friend, whose warmth and generosity touched and transformed the lives of all who crossed her path. Her kindness knew no bounds, and she treated everyone indiscriminately, irrespective of class, gender, status or rank. She played an active role in transforming so many lives and made them become a better version of themselves.

Beyond her family life, she was a God-fearing woman, a fervent and committed Presbyterian, a devoted CWF member and a chorister. She worshipped at P.C. Garoua for 32 years, where she was an elder, chorister in the English Choir and CWF President. She also worshipped at P.C. Great Soppo and P.C. Bonadikombo.

Despite her desire to continue with church activities, ill health restricted her active and total participation.

Outside her church activities, Mrs. Nzume enjoyed spending time and celebrating with family members and friends. She loved travelling and visited several countries in the world – China, USA, France, England, Israel, Dubai, to name just a few. She always encouraged everyone around her not to miss out on any opportunity to enjoy and have fun with the phrases, “LES BEAUX JOURS SONT RARES” and “ONE LIFE TO LIVE.”

Mrs. Nzume started experiencing health challenges 8 years ago. However, her strong faith in God, hope and positive outlook on life kept her strong, and she repeatedly confessed that “I be Jesus e follow back!”

Despite her sporadic periods of ill health, she kept on loving, caring and being kind to all around her.

On the 5th July, she experienced some discomfort and was hospitalised for close to a week. At a time when we thought she was regaining her health, she passed away quietly on the 18th July 2026.

She leaves behind her loving husband, children, grandchildren, mother, sisters, brother, cousins, in-laws, nieces, nephews, other family members, neighbours and a host of friends who all adored her.

Eulogies

LYNE,
I LOVE YOU.

My love for you is everlasting.

Kenneth - Husband

My darling daughter, your departure is a great blow in my life. I thought you would be the one to bury me as you did your father. Little did I know that what I desired will not be granted by the Lord. You were a mother to your children, sisters and brother, as well as your husband, but death has decided to separate us and take you away. Look at my age, how long am I going to live to take care of them? I leave everything in the hands of the Lord. He the supreme judge. I thank God that you have gone home to your maker. Rest in perfect peace mummy.

Ma Lobe - Mom

My super woman. The strongest woman I know yet the most gentle, caring, selfless, empathetic and generous. A woman of faith who defeated cancer, who sailed through turbulent seasons of various illnesses but still with a positive attitude. You were my friend, confidant, adviser, fashionista, life coach and many more. Always ready to listen and give advice with your soft voice without judging. A mother of nations par excellence. You will be greatly missed. We love you.

Daughter, Yvette & the Tambe Family

Mommy, everything I am today is a testament to your love, sacrifices, and unwavering support. You carried our family with quiet strength, giving endlessly without ever asking for anything in return. Your gentle heart, deep faith, and constant reminder to take our prayer life seriously will remain with us forever. We still hear your reassuring words, "I be Jesus Christ e follow back," a beautiful reflection of your unwavering trust in God. We thank God that you lived to see even your grandchildren. Little Myla remembers your warmth and affection. Though our hearts are broken, we find comfort knowing you are resting with the Lord. We will honor your legacy by loving and caring for Dad, just as you would have wanted.

Rest well mommy, until we meet again.

Son, Terence Nzume & Family

Mummy, saying goodbye feels impossible. Even now, as we prepare to lay you to rest, your presence fills every corner of my heart. I rejoice knowing you've gone to be with your loving big brother, Jesus. I will forever remember your love, gentleness, kindness, strength, and peace. Thank you for every sacrifice, lesson, piece of advice, and moment of warmth you gave me. Though you are no longer here, your spirit and love will guide me always. Rest peacefully; your legacy of love lives on in us all. I love you with all my heart.

Daughter, Annie & the Tangang Family

Mummy I am penning this tribute with a heavy heart. Your sudden death came as a shock to me as we were least prepared for this. Your love, kindness, strength, and gentle heart will forever guide me.

Thank you for every sacrifice, every hug, and every lesson you gave. Your memory will be my comfort, and your love will be my light.

Rest peacefully, Mom-you will be loved, missed, and remembered forever.

Michael Che - Son

It's with a heavy heart that I pen down this tribute to a woman who made the world brighter, softer, and infinitely more beautiful just by being in it. Mum, you gave us everything. You poured your whole soul into loving us, and that love has shaped who I am today. Though our hearts are heavy with your absence, we find peace knowing that a love so beautiful never truly ends. I wish you would have seen me walk down the aisle, but I know you will be there with me throughout that beautiful journey. Go well mum, I love you.

Leonard Mendi - Son

My sweetest of hearts,

I'm writing this with a heavy heart. You were always such a gentle and graceful mother, someone who truly understood me and supported me with joy, even when I doubted myself. You embodied love and brought so much goodness into my life. There are no words to fully express what you mean to me or how deeply I miss you.

I always felt protected by your endless prayers, and your boundless love and virtues shaped who I am today. We trust in God's plan, believing He knows best, and I find comfort in knowing you are now at eternal rest with Him.
You will live on forever in my heart, memories, thoughts, and accomplishments. I love you so much, Mommy.

Junior Nzume - Son

A special bond that lasts a lifetime, through laughter, smiles and tears. Your time, care and love have made me the person I am today. I am truly grateful to have you in my life. There are simply not enough words to say how much I love you.

Boldwin Motove - Son

My Angel,

The gentle voice that steadied my storms.
You were an embodiment of peace, positivity, softness and light. There are no words for your exceptionality. Your values and lessons have moulded every aspect of my life and made me who I am. This one hit harder than anything I've ever felt, I don't think I can ever fill this void. My only consolation is that I believe Jesus has called his « follow back » to rest with him eternally and you are finally with the Lord. You always prayed fervently and encouraged us to be steadfast. You will live on in my heart, my achievements, my reflection, and our memories. I love you forever.

Estherine Nzume - Daughter

Dear Grandma,

We were so devastated to hear about your passing. There are no right words to explain a moment like this, but we want you to know that we love you. Grandma, you were always there for us with your kindness, warmth, and generosity. We will always remember how you would spare time and energy for us. We know you are in a better place now. We love you so much, Grandma!

Flanesia, Myla, Myles and Nasya Ari

Dear Ma Nzums,

It is with deep sorrow that we write this tribute, never imagining we would be saying goodbye so soon. You always said, you were "Jesus ei follow back," and today, you have truly followed Him, leaving us with memories
we will cherish forever.

As our eldest sister, you were our guide, our encourager, and our example. You lived a life of love, kindness, humility, and unwavering faith. You carried our burdens, celebrated our joys, and always believed there was something good in every person and every situation. Your strength gave us courage, and your gentle spirit made everyone feel loved.

The emptiness your passing has left, can never be filled, but we are grateful to God for the gift of your beautiful life. We pray He comforts Ken, Mum, your children, our family, and all who loved you.

Rest peacefully, our beloved sister. Reunited with Dad and Sister Catherine, you are finally home with the Lord. Until we meet again, your love and your legacy will live in our hearts forever. With all our love,

Violet, Vivian, Bume, Ceci and Victor - Siblings

Today, we honor the life of a woman who was truly amazing and the kindest and most loving person in the world. I can honestly say she was my best friend and my junior sister. To try and do justice right here in these few words is impossible. She dedicated her life to family and making sure we were supported in everything, and at all times, this took her all around the globe, notably Europe USA China Dubai and Africa. I fondly called her "pepe." "My Boh". She was slow to judge and quick to forgive. Nothing seemed to rattle her feathers as she always said "Ane Ha" meaning any how there will be a solution. I loved her more than words could possibly say and she will live on in my heart forevermore. Farewell is the hardest word to say but rest peacefully, I will love you forever .

Mommy Anna Nzume

Our beloved Aunt, "Mummy" to many, was a mother to us all. Your passing leaves a void no one can fill. Gentle, kind, and humble, you welcomed everyone with love, compassion, and without judgment. Your listening ear, warm heart, and boundless affection made you deeply cherished. Even in life's darkest moments, your unwavering faith in Christ remained your greatest strength. Proudly calling yourself "Jesus e Follow Back," you inspired hope and peace wherever you went. Though we grieve your loss, we find comfort knowing you rest with the Lord. Rest peacefully, Mummy Caro. You are forever loved and never forgotten.

Manyi - on behalf of Nephews, Nieces and Spouses

Jesus Christ E Follow Back, Mummy, Big Mami! We are grateful for your life and for joy and laughter we shared with you. Distance never made a difference—you were always close and in our lives. Thank you for your selfless love, wise advice, patience, gentle spirit, kindness and deep appreciation for life. We are comforted knowing you are reunited with your Big Brother, Jesus, and our Heavenly Father. We miss you but hold to the hope that we will meet again, n'est-ce pas?! We will spoke, spack, speck...

With all our love,

Sidonie, Yaya, Yinka, Jane, Opey, and grandchildren in the UK

Dear Aunty Caro, rest peacefully. Your love, light and gentle strength is what surrounds us. You were a true mentor. Family events will never be the same without your bright smile and laughter, but your memory stays with us always. You will be greatly missed. We love you.

Tambi Sons and Daughters

Mummy,
You brought so much warmth and grace into the family. You loved daddy with this deep, steady devotion which inspires us all. You had this smile and kind soft words you tell everyone when we feel down. You will always say, "Nam, don't worry everything will be fine".

Mummy, though you are gone which is really hard to accept; we will always love you and know you are in our hearts forever.

Namondo & Siblings.

It is difficult to find the right words to express what Mummy meant to our family. She was a loving mother, sister, grandmother, godmother, and a true friend. Since our paths first crossed in Garoua, the Nzume and Djoumessi families became one through her boundless love and kindness. She embraced us as her own, filling our lives with cherished memories and strengthening the bond that will forever unite our families. Her passing has left an irreplaceable loss, but her legacy of love, faith, and generosity will remain in our hearts forever. Rest in peace, Mummy.

With Love, the Djoumessi Family

Kenneth Nzume and Carolyn Lobe; John Palle and Dorothy Ekuri. These children paired up in this order about half a century ago. It all started behind their parents' backs. They were then in secondary school, then high school and then university. Their parents became suspicious, then aware, and then, much, much later....blessed them. Weddings were conducted.

Caro was the mother of the group, gathering and protecting us like a hen does to her chicks. She had a pet name for each of us. Mine was Bansa and mine for her was Lyne.

Lyne found small niches for us where we did our own things and showed love to each other....Sacred Heart college house, minicite' room in Yaounde.

When Kenneth went abroad to study, the three stayed behind and waited; Lyne waited. As he returned our lives went from school to homes. Lyne seamlessly blended her civil service work and her duties as a wife and mother. She instilled Christian beliefs and practices in a military man's home. Love, kindness, affection and understanding of and for each other were the pillars of her home, gathering her family in a niche filled with love and faith.

Lyne was my sister, my mother, my confidant. She was the only woman who understood me, even in my faults. When others scolded me, and even Kenneth was asking me to "climb table for six lashes", Lyne would step in calmly and say to me "Bansa I understand you". I was the oldest in the group. Believing I would go first, I indicated to her where I would like to be buried. But God decided otherwise...my eyes are blinded with tears. Please Lord grant her peace in your Kingdom. Lyne, we are coming.

Dr. John Palle - Family friend

À ma marraine de mariage Carolyn Lobe, Epouse Kenneth Akwe Nzume, Tu es venue du Sud-ouest anglophone pour faire d'un enfant du centre- que je suis-ton fils spirituel. Tu quittes ce monde avec 50 ans d'avance et tu me laisses dans la tristesse.

Tu es venue du Sud-ouest anglophone pour me guider dans la vie, tu m'as couvert de tendresse.

Tu es venue du Sud-ouest anglophone pour mettre Dieu au centre de tout ce que je fais, tu m'as montré la voie de la sagesse.

Dans les moments difficiles de mon existence, tu as remplacé ma défunte mère en m'éloignant de la détresse.

Tu étais une force tranquille d'amour et de gentillesse.

Merci pour tout ce que ton chéri Colonel Kenneth Akwe Nzume et toi- même avez apporté dans ma vie, chez mes enfants et dans ma famille tout court.

Soit rassurée, à droite de Dieu tout puissant où tu résides désormais, en préparant nos places, que toutes nos prières te sont dédiées. Elles le sont aussi à toute la famille que tu laisses sans voix et sans voie et à ton cher mari éploré et frère que le seigneur m'a donné.

Repose en paix entourée de l'amour si généreusement offerts aux autres. Dieu le revaudra au centuple à toutes tes générations.

A Tribute to Caro from Your Sister/Friends

Caro, your passing has left a void that words cannot fill. To us, you were more than a friend—you were a sister, counselor, mentor, and the pillar of our close-knit family of friends. Your love, wisdom, loyalty, and unwavering support touched each of our lives in unique ways. We will cherish the laughter, conversations, and beautiful memories we shared over the years. Though our hearts ache at your untimely departure, we find comfort in knowing you are at peace with your "Big Brother Jesus Christ" Rest well, dear Caro. We loved you deeply, but God loved you more. Until we meet again. God Bless.

Today, we stand together to say GOODBYE to CAROLYNE BESSEM LOBE epse Nzume.

From GHS Mamfe (where she did her Form 1), she joined us in September 1975 and she was admitted into Form 2A.

We sat together, took the same lessons from the same teachers, wrote the same exams, laughed together, etc. To us, we were a family. We shall remember her for her simplicity, contaminating smile (you never knew when Caro was angry), generosity, support for the weak, you can name the rest.

The last encounter we had with her was on Saturday the 04/04/26, during our bi annual class meeting in Buea. She was also very energetic and robust in health as well as participatory in the last KUPEXSA Elective GA that took place in the school campus on Saturday the 23rd of May 2026. Today, we all stand here to bear witness to her final journey to eternity. She goes down in the annals of our history books as the 26th Golden batch member that we're laying to rest. We won't feel the same without her. There will be an empty seat, a missing voice, but we promise to embed them in our hearts.

As a class, we'll honor her by being kind to each other, by supporting one another and by chasing the dreams we talked about together. BESSEM is gone too soon but she'll never be forgotten. She fought a good fight but God has the final say.

To the parents, children, siblings, loved ones and KUPEXSANS in general, we say thank you for sharing with us. GOOD BYE SISTER. ADIEU.

Appreciation

With grateful hearts, we sincerely thank all who assisted us during this period of grief.

Your calls, messages, visits, prayers, and many other gestures of love and concern made the burden lighter.

We deeply appreciate your material, financial and moral support. Words alone are inadequate to express our gratitude, but we pray the Almighty to richly bless you all and grant you journey mercies.
